IMPORTANT SAFETY NOTICE

During our trip, unexpected situations may arise. If the vehicle overheats or a tire punctures/bursts due to friction or other reasons, please remain patient and wait for the vehicle to be fixed. Our route traverses varying terrain, including steep inclines and declines, which may require extra caution.

Additionally, unforeseen circumstances like bridge breakdowns, floods, or landslides may force us to halt at a safe location until the path is cleared and deemed safe for travel.

In such situations, please exercise patience and understanding. It's essential to remember that these events are beyond our control, and abusing or misbehaving with the tour guide or management is unacceptable.

Your safety and well-being are our top priority. Please trust our experienced tour guide to make informed decisions and take necessary precautions. Your cooperation and patience are crucial in ensuring a smooth and enjoyable journey.

Remember, your safety is in our hands, and we're committed to making this trip a memorable one. Let's work together to make it a success!
